COVID-19 cancels more local events

BY COLLIN OVERTON

Three more annual events — two that are big fundraisers for their organizations and another that provides funding for dozens of non-profits — have been canceled by the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

The Madison Riverfront Development Committee met last Monday and decided to cancel the fourth annual UTV/Golf Cart Poker Run scheduled for Oct. 3, committee member JD Webster announced in a release. Then on Friday, Prince of Peace Catholic schools announced it would cancel its annual Summer Festival for 2020, which has brought rides, games, music and food to the lawn of Shawe Memorial High School at the beginning of each school year. And finally, the city of Madison announced that the 2020 Soup Stew Chili & Brew Festival set for Oct. 9 will go on hiatus this year.

Webster cited the health and safety of participants and employees as the reason for canceling the poker run, which drew 500 UTVs and golf carts last year and helped the Madison Riverfront Development Committee match grants and fund a $180,000 section of the riverwalk that was completed last summer.

"Considering the current COVID-19 crises and the potential impact to the health and safety of the residents of Madison and Jefferson County, our volunteers, and our participants who make this fundraiser successful, we have reached the very difficult decision to cancel this year's event … We did not come to this decision lightly and we believe this serves the best interest of our community at this time," Webster said.

In the meantime, the committee is preparing a fundraising kickoff for the proposed super overlook project on the river and new Regatta judge's stand, Webster said. Next year's poker run is scheduled for Oct. 2, 2021.

Prince of Peace will also miss out on a good chunk of its fundraising with cancellation of the summer festival. The rides and midway games for kids and beer garden for adults will not take place but the school still plans to conduct much of the raffle ticket sales that support the annual event.

"It is very unfortunate that we must make these difficult decisions. However, due to the potential impact of the health and safety of our staff, families, and community members, we feel this serves the best interest of everyone involved," POP President Phil Kahn said.

POP will sell 200 raffle tickets for $200 each, and the winner could take home one of two $5,000 drawings.

The Soup Stew Chili & Brew Festival provided an opportunity for cooks to showcase their palate pleasing recipes in an cooking competition that has gotten bigger and better each of the past 18 years, taking over Main Street with food and brew booths, live music and tasty desserts.

Wolf's jury trial set for Oct. 5

Madison woman facing 2 counts murder, 1 attempted murder

The Madison woman charged with stabbing to death two Indianapolis residents and seriously injuring a third on May 11 is facing a October trial date in Marion Superior Court.

Kristen L. Wolf

Kristen Wolf, 28, of the 2200 block of Seneca Drive, Madison, has been charged with two counts of murder and attempted murder, all Level 1 felonies, and battery by means of a deadly weapon, a Level 5 felony, in connection with the brutal attack on May 11 at an apartment complex in Indianapolis.

The case has been on the court's remote docket several times during the COVID-19 pandemic. However, Wolf is scheduled for a final pretrial conference at 1:30 p.m. on Sept. 30 ahead of a jury trial scheduled to begin at 8:30 a.m. on Oct. 5 in Criminal Division 20 of the Marion Superior Court in Indianapolis.

The former Madison Correctional Unit employee — she was relieved of those duties once corrections officials realized she was being charged in the felonies — has been lodged in the Marion County Jail without bond since her arrest on May 23.

According to court records, Wolf is charged in connection with the stabbing deaths of Victoria Cook, 24, Dylan Dickover, 28 and the stabbing of Elizabeth McHugh, 33, who survived the assault in an Indianapolis apartment complex. All three victims are from Indianapolis.

Murder is listed as an unclassified felony in Indiana and carries a prison sentence of from 45-65 years while attempted murder is a Class A felony punishable by 20-40 years in prison and battery by means of a deadly weapon is a Level 5 felony that carries a 1-6 year prison sentence.

WET WEATHER

By Collin Overton

The workweek got off to a wet and loud start Monday as dark clouds brought heavy rain, lightning and loud thunder to Madison and the Ohio River Valley area. Although just a drizzle compared to the 3-6 inches of rainfall received just days earlier, the morning thunderstorm was still enough to get Hanging Rock Falls flowing strong.

2nd arrest made in Dollar General theft

Michael Jennings

Madison Police have made a second arrest in connection with an Aug. 4, burglary at the Dollar General Store in downtown Madison.

Det. Ricky Harris arrested Michael Jennings, 20, of Scipio, Indiana, charging him with burglary, a Level 5 felony, on Aug. 7.

Madison Police had responded to a reported burglary at the Dollar General Store, 408 Jefferson St., in the early morning hours of Aug. 4. An investigation indicated that two subjects had entered the business and stole money. An employee of the store, Taylor R. Brinson, 18, of Madison, was then arrested on Aug. 5 in connection with the burglary.

In addition to his arrest for burglary on Aug. 7, Jennings was also arrested by Madison Police on Aug. 5 on narcotics-related charges. During a police search of the vehicle Jennings was operating, officers recovered cash believed to have been taken in the burglary.

Madison man facing gun, drug charges following Sunday arrest

Madison Police responding to a report of an intoxicated man trying to sell drugs in the Regatta Court area of Presidential Estates, arrested a 29-year-old Madison man on drug and weapon charges on Sunday.

Patrolman Brian Ashcraft was first to arrive at the scene and located a subject fitting the description on Regatta Court. As Ashcraft approached the man, later identified as John T. Clark, 29, of Madison, he noticed a portion of a handgun sticking out of Clark's pants pocket.

Upon arrival of backup units, officers were able to secure the

"The Soup Stew Chili & Brew committee has been meeting to monitor the COVID-19 conditions in the area, but due to the rise in cases, the committee has decided it is in the community's best interest to cancel the 2020 festival," The group said on its Facebook page. "The decision proved extremely difficult as the festival holds such a special place in the hearts of committee members, Madison locals, and tourists who visit each year. Even with heavy hearts, the committee is excited to plan a safe and exciting experience for Oct. 9, 2021, as we celebrate our 19th festival."

At this time, the committee is exploring the idea of a virtual event for 2020, so attendees can still share the excitement of Soup Stew Chili & Brew from home! You can visit their Facebook page for more details.

IHSAA issues guidelines for fall sports

BY DAVID CAMPBELL

Limiting crowds to 50% capacity, or a maximum of 250, no pre- or post-game handshakes and of course liberal use of masks and social distancing are just some of the guidelines handed down by the Indiana High School Association last week as schools prepare to begin fall sports seasons.

The IHSAA issued the much-anticipated document at a time when the situation seems to change daily. College conferences — including the Heartland Collegiate Athletic Conference — have already postponed fall sports and moved football and other contact sports to the spring, and Kentucky high school have delayed the start of fall sports seasons until September.

As of Monday, the IHSAA is planning to start the season on time, even if several counties and school districts across the state have announced delays to their seasons. With that in mind, the guidelines were issued to give schools a framework in which to operate this season.

Along with the requirements for facial coverings and social distancing for all non-athletes, the IHSAA noted that if any school has to cancel a game or match due to an outbreak, it will not have to pay a financial penalty and it will not be counted as a forfeit. Stands are limited to 50% capacity or a maximum of 250. More fans can be admitted if there are multiple stands, but there must also be a separate entrance and bathroom facilities.

David Campbell

Madison's varsity lines up for instructions before the start of the intersquad scrimmage on Friday at the junior high.

As for sport-specific guidelines: Golf may use electronic scoring and scores will be confirmed verbally; Tennis players should avoid touching balls from other courts; Cross country starting lines are to be widened as much as possible; Soccer, volleyball and football will not hold pre- and post-game handshakes; Volleyball teams will not switch sides during the match; and football team boxes have been extended to the 10-yard lines for players only.

Along with these guidelines, schools are encouraged to add their own guidelines and local health department regulations are to be followed.

Locally, Madison, Southwestern and Switzerland County high schools are expected to follow those guidelines with few additions.

Madison athletic director Joe Bronkella said the school has been working with the Jefferson County Health Department and does not plan on deviating from what has been suggested.

"We have already posted signage at all of our venues in regards to social distancing and masks and health risk. We have changed our concession offerings to only candy, pre-packaged chips and bottled drinks," Bronkella said. "Our conference has not dictated anything. We will also be adapting our indoor seating arrangement to upper level seating only, away from players."

Southwestern athletic director Tom Scroggins said that they are limiting all sporting event crowds to 200 and will close off the bleachers at the soccer field. For volleyball, the lower bowl will be opened on three sides giving plenty of space for fans.

"We don't anticipate having more than 200 for anything so that shouldn't be a problem," Scroggins said. "The upper deck will be opened for tournaments and everybody will be required to wear masks to enter, no exceptions."

Switzerland County athletic director Mark Boggs said that the school is strongly considering selling only pre-sale football tickets in order to aid in keeping the crowd at 250.

"We want to make sure that opposing teams are aware so they are not making the travel and getting turned away," Boggs said.

Girls soccer teams ready to hit the pitch

BY DAVID CAMPBELL

After weeks of preparation both on and off the field, local high school girls soccer teams are ready to hit the pitch starting this week for a much-anticipated 2020 season.

All three local teams lost important players to graduation but each has a chance to put together strong seasons before the year is through.

A look at all three local teams:

MADISON CUBS

Madison went 6-9-3 against a very difficult schedule last year and took 19th-ranked North Harrison to the brink before losing in a shootout in the sectional finals.

The Cubs lost several key players from that team — including all-state player Kennedy Stidham — but with a strong core back and a talented freshman class moving in, there's plenty of reason for excitement within the squad.

Seniors Jordyn Bilz and Lani Stockdale will lead the team. Bilz was an all-Hoosier Hills Conference attacking midfielder last year and led the team in goals while Stockdale earned all-HHC second team honors on the defensive end.

"We have a mentality that our forwards are the first defender and our GK the first line of the attack," Madison coach Janet Hertz said. "We are still working on team shape, collective movement, and the attack in the final third. Over the course of the season, our hope is to be the best versions of ourselves on and off the field."

Seniors Zola Jackson and Lani Stockdale are four-year players and will provide plenty of leadership. Juniors Claire Bilz, Hailey Jenkins, Marin Kernen and Taylor Lynch are back on the field this campaign as well as sophomores Casey Dyer, Riley Poling, and Breck Ralston. Seven newcomers — Molly Armbrecht, Bridget Cline, Iyana Phelps, Diana Corral, Bella Corrales, Kiarra Bauer and Neveah Jones — will make their presence felt.

"Our team graduated our first All-State Second team honoree in Kennedy Stidham, who will be playing collegiately at NAIA National Runner-Up Marian University, an anchor in our backline with Jessie Dyer, and regional qualifying flank speed in Harper Watson. However, we find the best in every situation and see the positivity in our returning players good group chemistry with our newcomers," Hertz said. "Armbrecht has a resilient mentality and has worked well with the defensive backline. Freshmen Iyana Phelps and Bridget Cline will assist in team speed and high pressure to create opportunities going forward."

In addition to having success on the field, Madison hopes to continue its outstanding success off the field. The team earned a pair of national awards last season for team ethics and academics. Each of the last three seasons they have completed more than 200 combined hours of community service. Each week they attend weekly study tables and last season had a team GPA of 4.07 with seven of eight juniors and seniors earning Academic All-State District 4 honors, all three seniors earning Academic ICGSA All-State honors, and 10 eligible players earning Academic All-Conference honors.

"We look to continue to contribute to the community off the field and trust the process to make the most of this season," Hertz said. "We know that people forget stats, but remember the impact of a good teacher. The beautiful game parallels life and teaches many lessons that will transpire to the next generation."

Madison will get its first chance to hit the pitch on Wednesday when it travels to Scottsburg for a scrimmage.

You're not to blame

Dear Annie: I have an absolutely wonderful boyfriend who I have been with for nearly two years. The only issue we have is regarding some of my exes. Although I have proven to him that I have no lingering feelings whatsoever, he has a hard time when they come up in anyone's conversation, or if they contact me out of the blue.

Recently, one of my exes, "Josh," was in a very bad place because of extensive drug use, overall recklessness, violence and possible attempted suicide. He did not have many people looking out for him, so I wanted to reach out to hear his side of things and see if I could help, because this was nothing like the person I knew. I was very worried. And for my sake, too, I wanted to know if I really dated someone who did the terrible things I was hearing, and I just wanted some closure. I wasn't sure if being on his radar was the best thing, but my boyfriend especially did not want me to have any communication with him, partly out of concern for my safety.

Ultimately, I decided that my boyfriend is too important for me to make him uncomfortable, so I didn't talk to Josh. Now I have gotten the news that Josh committed suicide, and I am absolutely crushed. I knew him as a great person with big dreams, but I ended things when I saw him going down a dark road with drug use. However, I always had hope things would turn back around for him. I can't help feeling some resentment toward my boyfriend.

Was my boyfriend justified in his hesitation? Do I need to just get over the guilt of not helping Josh and not blame my boyfriend, or, under the circumstances, should my boyfriend have accepted me talking to him? Should I have contacted Josh anyway knowing he needed help regardless of my boyfriend's feelings? — Not Sure How to Feel

ANNIE LANE
DEAR ANNIE

Dear Not Sure How to Feel: I'm so sorry for your loss and that Josh could not reach out for professional help in time. The key words in that sentence are "professional help." While you sound like an amazing person, Josh needed to seek out professional help. You cannot blame yourself for his death, nor can you blame your boyfriend.

As for your boyfriend's jealousy, that is a trust issue. Perhaps he needs more reassurance in your relationship. If you want to be a friend and keep in touch with your exes, by all means, do so. However, when you do, be open and honest about it. If that doesn't work for you and your boyfriend, it is better to know now, not after he has become another ex.

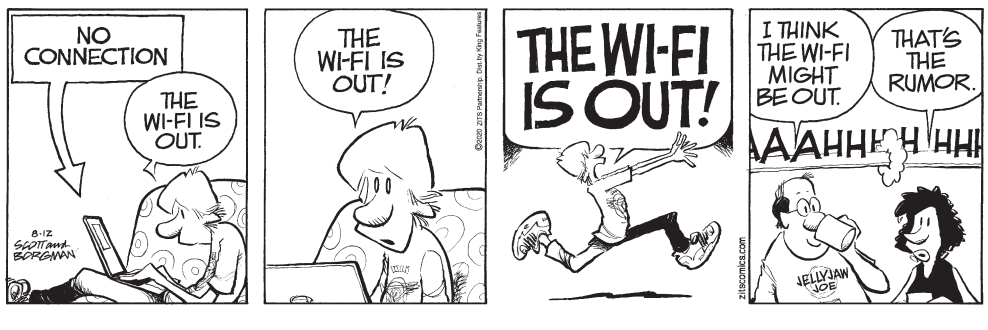
ZITS



Abuse follows

Dear Annie: My father did everything he could to make my life miserable, and to deprive me of anything and everything. He treated my brother and sisters far differently, but even so, everyone in the family knew he was one sick man.

My brother committed suicide when he was 21, and after that, my father made a couple of attempts to have a relationship with me, but he still couldn't help himself. He would constantly try to undermine me and make verbal slights and backhanded remarks any chance he got. My mother was the same as he was when it came to emotional abuse. They fought constantly and blamed their unhappiness on being stuck in the marriage because of the children.

After he was old and his health was failing, he wondered why I didn't want anything to do with him. Throughout my life, I avoided him like the plague and would rather have pulled my own teeth than go to his funeral.

Child abuse lasts forever; you never forget those who did everything in their power to destroy you when you were a child.

If you were never treated like that, you will never understand. Reading about it in a book might give you a tiny bit of insight, but you will never understand it if you haven't lived it. — Still Hurting

ANNIE LANE
DEAR ANNIE

Dear Still Hurting: I am so sorry you had to endure that emotional abuse. Your father and mother sound like they were awful parents, and no child deserves to be treated that way. I am also so very sorry for the loss of your brother. You are correct that there is no one better to help people going through things than someone who has experienced that type of abuse themselves. That is the premise of Alcoholics Anonymous — former alcoholics helping other alcoholics.

The faster you heal, the quicker you will be able to help those who have suffered similar abuse. Try and find a good therapist who can help you process some of your trauma.

Dear Annie: I don't like dogs. That said, every dog seems to sense this, and, when not on a leash, comes barreling toward me. I always put my hand out like a traffic cop stopping cars. I say no to the dog and back away. I say to the owner, kindly, that I don't like dogs but they always seem to gravitate toward me.

This is usually not well received. I know some people think of their dogs as children, and that my statement is a bit harsh, but it's the truth. Can you help me with a phrase that would get owners to control their dog? The dog should be on a leash in the first place, but I'm not going to address that, as they know they are at fault. Thanks for any help you can offer. — Barking up the Wrong Tree

Dear Barking up the Wrong Tree: That which we resist persists. It is OK not to like dogs, but have you ever asked yourself why? If you do some introspection, you might find yourself disliking them less than you think. Dogs should be on leashes for your safety and theirs. Next time you encounter a dog, just try and ignore it and continue on your walk.

Boggs also said that the school will open multiple ticket gates.

Because of state of Indiana regulations, no fans will be allowed at any event until Saturday, including the Madison-Shawe soccer scrimmage on Wednesday and Switzerland County's football scrimmage on Friday. Madison has pushed its scrimmage back to Saturday in order to accommodate fans.

The Cubs then open the regular season at Jennings County on Tuesday, Aug. 18 and host Silver Creek on Saturday for their first home game of the season.

SOUTHWESTERN REBELS

Southwestern got stronger as the year progressed last season and a young group of players began to hit their stride.

Now Southwestern is hoping that experience will pay off. With nearly everybody back from a team that went 4-10-2, the Rebels have a chance to challenge for the Ohio River Valley Conference title despite the loss of exchange student Susie Bajraktari, the team's leading scorer.

Seniors Olivia Bruce and Isabel Brooks both earned all-ORVC honors last season while junior Cadence Humes and sophomore Kearstin Cizek emerged as serious scoring threats and will lead the offense. Senior Brooklyn Sachleben, juniors Emma Morrison and Julia Worcester, and sophomore Cambryn Bryant also saw extensive action and give the team a veteran group. Sophomore goalie Hannah Simpson had a strong season before getting hurt late in the campaign.

Southwestern opens the season on Saturday at home against Corydon Central.

SWITZERLAND COUNTY PACERS

Switzerland County went 9-4-4 last season, won the Ohio River Valley Conference championship and went to the sectional title game for the second year in a row. Now, the Pacers are hoping for more.

Switzerland County must overcome several key losses in order to reach the next level. Madison Courier Player of the Year Matty Anderson as well as goalie Deana Voris are among those who graduated and longtime head coach Tully Anderson also retired. Former Lady Pacer Courtney Dayadharum will take over the team.

But the Pacers have several strong pieces to rely on, led by all-conference performer Raylinn Kappes, who scored eight goals and had eight assists last year. Allie Bruce and Kayley Jones also earned all-ORVC honors.

In addition, Switzerland County is expected to reap the fruits of a strong junior high program that will begin filtering into the high school this year.

Switzerland opens the 2020 season on Monday at Milan. The Pacers' home opener will be Thursday, Aug. 20 against South Ripley.

NOTICE OF HEARING ON PROPOSED LEASE BETWEEN JEFFERSON COUNTY, INDIANA BUILDING CORPORATION AND JEFFERSON COUNTY, INDIANA

You are hereby notified that on Friday, August 21, 2020, the Board of Commissioners of Jefferson County, Indiana will hold a public hearing on a proposed lease to be entered into between the Jefferson County, Indiana Building Corporation (the "Corporation"), as lessor, and Jefferson County, Indiana (the "County"), as lessee (the "Lease") with respect to the financing of all or any portion of the acquisition, construction, improvement, and/or equipping of a new county jail facility located at 1106 West Hutchinson Lane, Madison, Indiana 47250, and any related improvements, all to be used for the purposes of providing incarceration, community corrections or other law enforcement or criminal justice services by the County (collectively, the "Project").

Such public hearing will be held at 9:00 a.m., local time, on Friday, August 21, 2020, in the Commissioners' Office in the Jefferson County Courthouse, Room 103, 300 East Main Street, Madison, Indiana.

The leased premises (the "Premises") under the proposed lease consists of all or a portion of the existing County jail facility located at 317 Walnut Street, Madison, Indiana 47250 and the Project, and the real estate on which such facilities are or will be located. The proposed lease is for a term of up to twenty (20) years commencing on the date of issuance of bonds of the Corporation to finance the Project (the "Bonds"). The annual lease rental will not exceed Two Million Nine Hundred Thousand Dollars ($2,900,000) payable in semiannual installments on January 1 and July 1 of each year during the term of the Lease. Each rental installment shall be based on the value of the portion of the Premises which will be complete and ready for use and occupancy by the County at the time such semi-annual installment is made. As additional rental, the County shall maintain insurance on the Premises as required in the Lease and shall pay all taxes and assessments against such property, as well as the cost of alterations and repairs. After a sale of the Bonds, the yearly rental, payable in semiannual installments on each January 1 and July 1 shall be reduced to the multiple of $1,000 next higher than the principal and interest due on the Bonds in each twelve month period commencing on July 1, plus $7,000, payable in such semiannual installments.

The County has previously imposed the income tax on the taxpayers of the County pursuant to IC 6-3.6 (the "LIT") and allocated a portion of the additional revenue category of the expenditure rate of the LIT to the sub-category of public safety (the revenues from such public safety sub-category, the "Public Safety Revenues"). To assist in the financing of the Project by the County, the City of Madison, Indiana (the "City") has agreed that the County shall receive 50% of the portion of the Public Safety Revenues received by the City (such portion of Public Safety Revenues received by the County, the "City Contribution"). The County shall pay lease rentals under the Lease solely from (i) the revenues of (a) the adjusted gross income tax levied and collected by the County pursuant to Indiana Code § 6-3.6-6-2.7 (the "Jail Income Tax Revenues"), (b) the share of the Public Safety Revenues received by the County (the "County Public Safety Revenues"), and (c) the City Contribution (the Jail Income Tax Revenues, the County Public Safety Revenues, and the City Contribution, collectively, the "Income Tax Revenues"), and (ii) to the extent that the Income Tax Revenues are insufficient to pay such amounts, from the revenues of an ad valorem tax levied by the County on all taxable property in the County pursuant to the IC 36-1-10-17.

The lease gives an option to the County to purchase the Premises. The Project will be used for the purposes of providing incarceration, community corrections or other law enforcement or criminal justice services by the County.

The drawings, plans, specifications and related information, including the estimates for the cost of providing the Project, as well as a copy of the proposed lease, are available for inspection by the public during normal business hours, at the office of the Auditor of the County, Jefferson County Courthouse, 300 E Main Street Street, Madison, Indiana 47250.

At such hearing, all persons interested shall have a right to be heard upon the necessity for the execution of the Lease, and upon whether the lease rental provided for therein to be paid by the County to the Corporation is a fair and reasonable rental for the Premises. Such hearing may be adjourned to a later date or dates. Following such hearing, the Board of Commissioners may authorize the execution of the Lease as originally agreed upon, rescind the proposed Lease, or make modifications therein as may be agreed upon with the Corporation, but in no event may the rental exceed the amounts set forth in this notice. The Board of Commissioners may approve the execution of the Lease if it finds that the service to be provided throughout the term of the Lease will serve the public purpose of the County and is in the best interests of its residents.

Any defense to the application for judgment must be filed with the Jefferson County Circuit Court and served on the county auditor and treasurer before 08/28/2020. The court will set a date for a hearing at least seven (7) days before the advertised date of sale and the court will determine any defenses to the application for judgment at the hearing. The county auditor and the county treasurer are entitled to receive all pleadings, motions, petitions, and other filings related to the defense to the application for judgment.

Such sale will be held on 09/16/2020 at the Courthouse and that sale will continue until all tracts and real property have been offered for sale. At the discretion of local officials, the tax sale may switch to an online format. If those measures are taking place, the public auction will be conducted as an electronic sale under IC 6-1.1-24-2(b)10 at www.zeusauction.com commencing on the same date / time listed above. All location updates will be posted at www.sriservices.com prior to the tax sale.

Property will not be sold for an amount which is less than the sum of:
(A) the delinquent taxes and special assessments on each tract or item of real property; and
(B) the taxes and special assessments on the real property that are due and payable in the year of the sale, whether or not they are delinquent; and
(C) all penalties due on the delinquencies, and
(D) an amount prescribed by the county auditor that equals the sum of:
(1) twenty-five dollars ($25) for postage and publication costs; and
(2) any other costs incurred by the county that are directly attributable to the tax sale; and
(E) any unpaid costs due under IC 6-1.1-24-2(c) from a prior tax sale.

Please note that the minimum bids listed may change due to the application of penalties on July 10, 2020.

No property listed below shall be sold if, at any time before the sale, the Total Amount for Judgment is paid in full. If the real property is sold in the tax sale, the amount required to redeem such property will be 110% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, if redeemed not more than six (6) months after the date of sale, or 115% of the minimum bid for which the tract or real property was offered at the time of sale, if redeemed more than six (6) months after the date of sale, plus the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the real property plus five percent (5%) per annum interest on the amount by which the purchase price exceeds the minimum bid on the property. All taxes and special assessments upon the property paid by the purchaser subsequent to the sale, plus five percent (5%) per annum interest on those taxes and special assessments, will also be required to be paid to redeem such property.

In addition, IC 6-1.1-25-2 (e) states the total amount required for redemption may include the following costs incurred and paid by the purchaser or the purchaser's assignee or the county before redemption: (1) The attorney's fees and cost of giving notice under IC 6-1.1-25-4.5; (2) The costs of title search or examining and update the abstract of title for the tract or item of real property. The period of redemption shall expire on Thursday, September 16, 2021 for certificates sold in the tax sale. For certificates struck to the county, the period of redemption may expire Thursday, January 14, 2021.

If the tract or item of real property is sold for an amount more than the minimum bid and the property is not redeemed, the owner of record of the property who is divested of ownership at the time the tax deed is issued may have a right to the tax sale surplus.

The Auditor and Treasurer specifically reserve the right to withhold from the sale any parcel which has been listed in error, or which otherwise becomes ineligible for sale either prior to 09/16/2020 or during the duration of the sale.

This notice of real property tax sale, and the tax sale itself are undertaken and will be conducted pursuant to the requirements of the laws of the State of Indiana which regulate the sale of land for delinquent taxes, pursuant to I.C. 6-1.1-24-1 et seq.

The County does not warrant the accuracy of the street address or common description of the property, and a misstatement in the key number or street address does not invalidate an otherwise valid sale.

Minimum bid amounts are prescribed by law and are subject to change prior to the auction date.

Pursuant to IC 6-1.1-24-3(e), property descriptions may be omitted for properties appearing on the certified list in consecutive years. A complete property list may be obtained at www.sriservices.com or in an alternative form upon request.
